

Ghostlight

Author: Kenneth Oppel

Age: 9 +

Genre: Fiction - thriller

This is the book for you if you like ...

- Stranger Things or Ghostbusters.
- Sitting on the edge of your seat.
- Spine-tingling ghost stories.
- Fast-paced action.
- Neil Gaiman.
- Goosebumps series by R. L. Stine.

Summary: Rebecca Strand was just sixteen when she and her father fell to their deaths from the top of the Gibraltar Point Lighthouse in 1839. Just how they fell remains a mystery, and when modern day teenager Gave accidentally awakens Rebecca's ghost, he and his friends become swept up in an adventure that threatens the whole of humankind...

A fresh and terrifying supernatural thriller that elevates the classic ghost story to a whole new level.

Extract: As the ghost scrambled onto the beach like a vast human centipede, her father impaled it with the beam.

"It's huge!" Rebecca gasped. Though it had many limbs, it had but one head, with a man's face. His furious corkscrew eyes seemed to suck the very moonlight into them, like water down a bottomless drain. The ghost's many limbs writhed, trying to break free from the light that had spiked it to the sand.

"Is he melting?" her father shouted.

"No!"

"He's too strong. We can't hold him for long!"

(Page 11)

THRILLING - CREEPY - MYSTERIOUS