

Wil Jakeman's Marvellous Mechanimals

Author and Illustrator:
Nick Ward

Age: 6 +

Genre: Fiction - science fiction

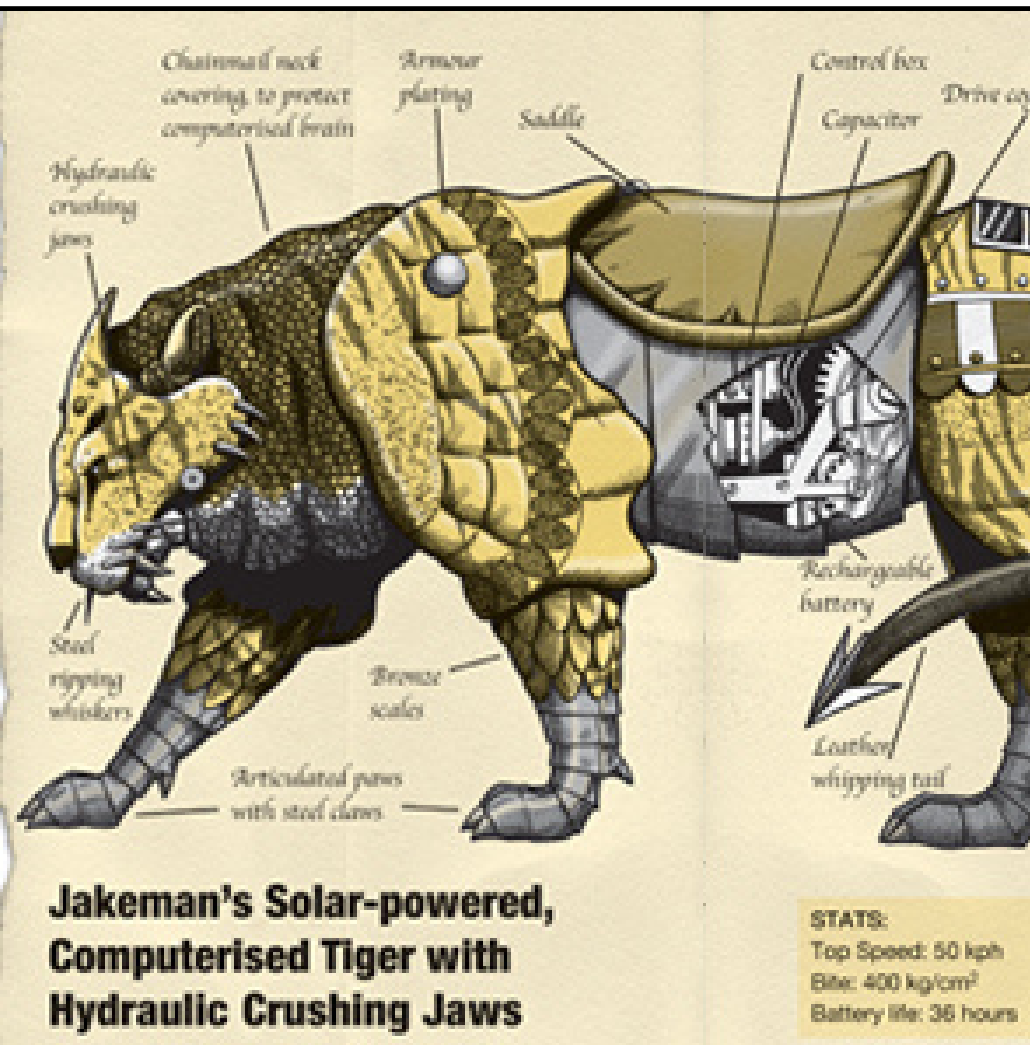

This is the book for you if you like ...

- Being inventive and imaginative.
- Action-packed and inspiring stories.
- Stunning and detailed diagrams.
- Sketching imaginary inventions.
- Creating your own comic strips.
- The Lost Diaries of Charlie Small series.

Summary: Will Jakeman is an inventor - the best inventor there has ever been! People come from far and wide to buy his 'Mechanimals' – incredible machines that come to life and perform all sorts of amazing tasks. For example, Steel-Skull the gorilla, perfect for dealing with bullies. Read all about Will's childhood, the terrible fate of his parents, and about the incredible machines he invented – with stunning two-colour detailed illustrations, and the chance to invent your very own Marvellous Mechanimal.

Greetings, readers!

Let me introduce myself – my name is Will Jakeman and I'm an inventor, perhaps the best inventor there has ever been. I'm old now, 99½ to be precise, and I'm as wrinkly as a walnut. To look at me, you'd never guess what hair-raising, nerve-jangling adventures I've had. Brilliant adventures, scary adventures, discombobulating adventures! And because I'm old and my memory isn't what it was, I have decided I'd better write everything down before I forget.

INVENTIVE - VIVID - ENGAGING