

Ghost Scouts: Welcome to Camp Croak

Author and Illustrator:
Taylor Dolan

Age: 5 +

Genre: Fiction - comedy and horror

This is the book for you if you like ...

- Ghouls, zombies, werewolves and more!
- Wild and wonderful illustrations.
- Diverse and unusual characters.
- Wednesday Adams.
- Bad Nana series by Sophy Henn.
- Isadora Moon series by Harriet Muncaster.

Summary: Lexi Wilde thinks she is going to the Happy Hollow Camp for Joyful Boys and Girls. But her Grams takes a wrong turn and they end up at Camp Croak, which turns out to be far more fun! Lexi and her friends (a werewolf, a zombie and a baseball-cap-wearing ghost) have to thwart the plans of the wickedly charming Euphemia Vile and all sorts of chaos ensues! An exiting laugh-out-loud page turner for young independent readers and a joyful tale to read aloud.

Extracts: This book is not for them. It's for people like YOU. People who might look ordinary on the outside, but have something special burbling up beneath their skin. You don't have to be brave, you just have to want to be brave. (Pages 4/5)

GHOSTS ARE REAL. Same as vampires, chupacabras, radish monsters, sea beasties, swamp Ghosts and Bigfoot, I swear on the life of my Grams and her five fat cats, I am telling you the whole truth. After all, I should know. My best friend is A WEREWOLF. (Pages 7/8)

FUN - GHOULISH - QUIRKY