

Ghost Scouts: Chaos at Camp Croak

Author and Illustrator:
Taylor Dolan

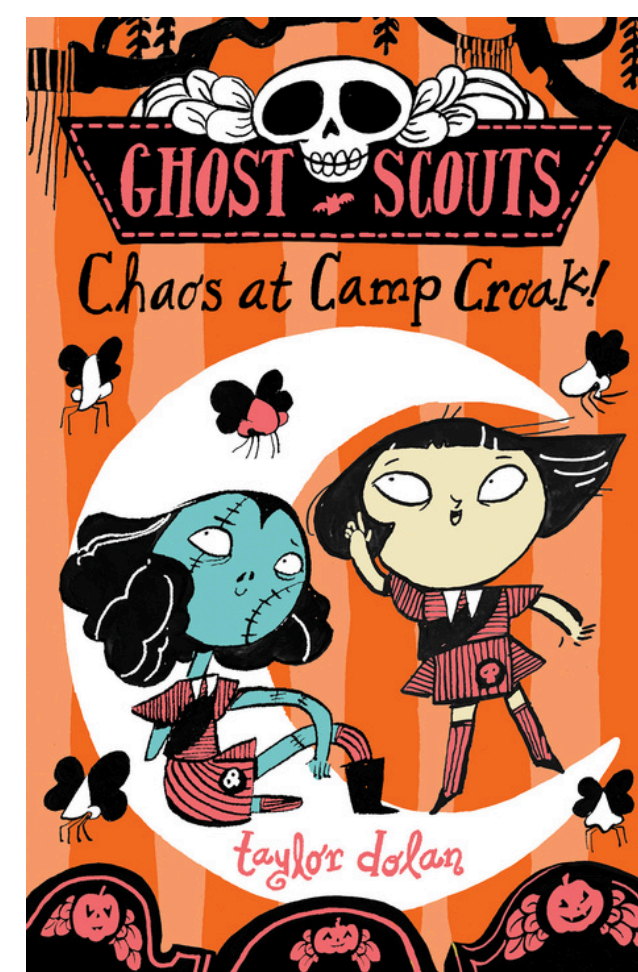

Age: 5 +

Genre: Fiction - comedy and horror

This is the book for you if you like ...

- Halloween fun!
- Quirky and cute illustrations.
- Wickedly wonderful characters.
- Wednesday Adams.
- The Worst Witch series by Jill Murphy.
- Isadora Moon series by Harriet Muncaster.

Summary: Lexi Wilde and her scout buddies can't wait for Halloween — it's party time at Camp Croak, when darkness sings and spiders shimmy. But disaster strikes when the gruesome Euphemia Vile arrives, threatening to shut down Camp Croak for good. Lexie and her friends (a skeleton, zombie, werewolf and ghost!) must save the day. Ghost Scouts Unite! Raise your paws and show some claws!

The third book in this laugh-out-loud series is perfect for fun-loving young readers who are moving on from picture books to chapter books.

Extracts: Dear reader, in case you've forgotten, I go to a camp where monsters and dead things are everyday occurrences. It takes a lot to put fear in me, but there was something in the voice that made my heart beat lightning fast. I could just tell that this was one dangerous beastie. Made of pure darkness and — (Page 11)

Now, bear in mind I have never cast a spell before. And here I am, about to put real magic out into the atmosphere like a total peanut on the night before Halloween! And like Miss Sage said, Halloween is the ONE NIGHT where spells become permanent after the sun sets. Lord help me, I am such a goof. (Page 59)

HUMOROUS - CREEPY - WILD