- Diary of a Wimpy Kid books by Jeff Kinney.

Summary: Knight Sir Louis is the bravest knight at King Burt's court. (Just don't mention wasps.) Along with his trusty mechanical steed, Clunkalot, and mystical sword, Knight Sir Louis and his friends are sent to do battle with the Damsel of Distresse who is terrorising the land, stealing coins of gold, silver and chocolate. A beautifully illustrated fantasy-adventure full of heroic silliness.

Extract: Knight Sir Louis is the bravest of all knights in all lands. Braver than Knight Sir Colin in the bogs of Wattasmall. Braver than Knight Sir Barbara in the mountains of Itso-Hy. Even braver than Knight Sir Gary from the soggy lands of Tippinitdown. Being brave is what Knight Sir Louis is known for.

But Louis is modest. He says he's not brave, but just good at staying calm when everyone else is going completely bonkers.

(Chapter 2)

Clunkie isn't really afraid of anything. He once flew inside an ogre's stomach just to rescue a potted plant.
