

Meet

Amelia Cheeseheart

She is an awesome pilot

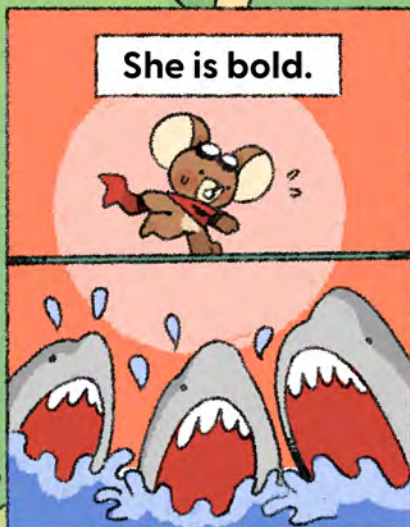

And she loves solving mysteries

She is brave.

She is bold.

Amelia has a best friend who loves bananas!

Webster

They like to visit their friends in different parts of the museum, like...

Roman Room

Medieval Marvels

And the Egyptian exhibit

But they always make sure they're home again before the museum opens

Would you like a hot chocolate, Webster?

Yes please!

Chapter one

One evening after the museum shuts...

Wake up, Amelia!

The delivery is today!

Delivery?

The new Choco-nana sweets are coming to the cafe!

I LOVE
Choco-nanas!

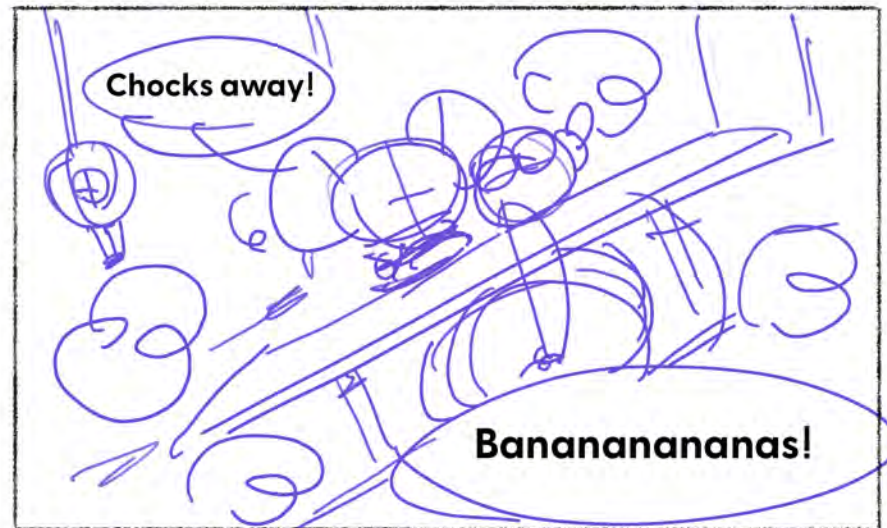

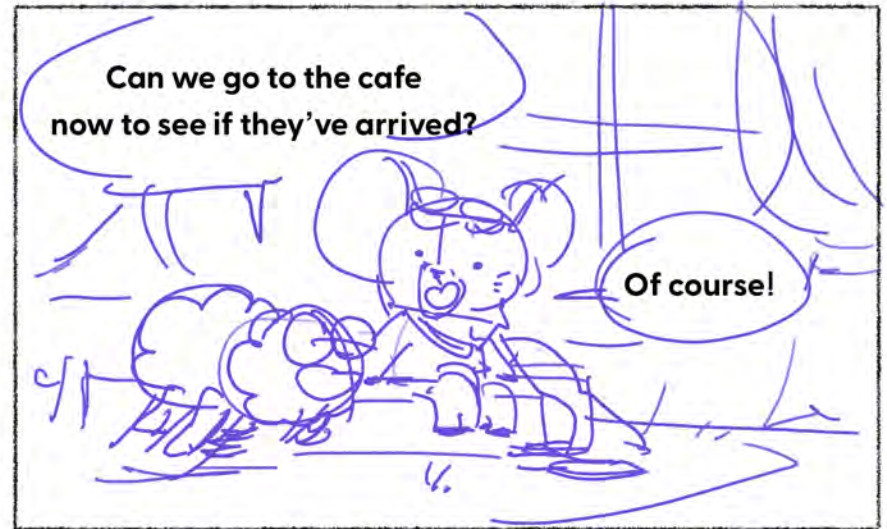

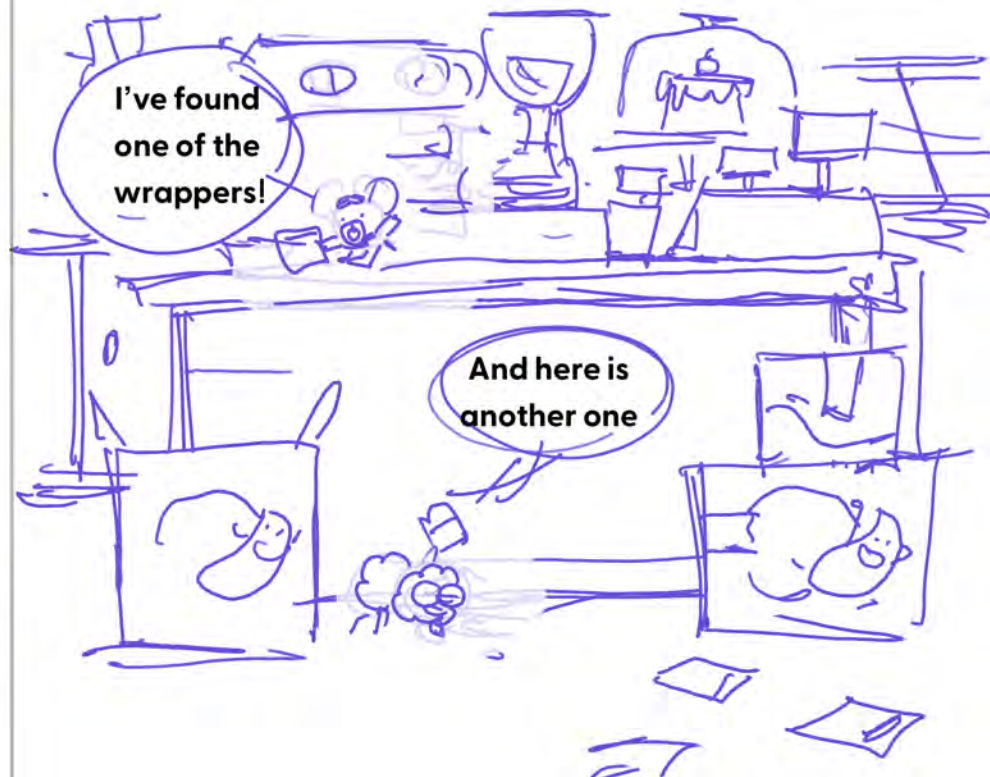

I'm going to wear
my special choco-nana baseball cap

My choco-nana badge

And all eight of my choconana wristbands!

Do you think someone has eaten them all?

I think someone really likes chocolate.

It's not just the choco-nanas.

I hope it's not a chocolate-eating d-d-dinosaur

It's not a dinosaur,
it's a mystery
for us to solve!

All of the chocolate has gone missing!

CHOCOLATE

The mystery of the missing chocolates!

Especially the choconanas!

5 Green bands

Chapter 2

Let's search the cafe

Maybe the thief has left a clue

I'm going to collect Choconana wrappers!

Looks like chocolatey footprints!

COFFEE GRINDER

Quick, Webster!
To the plane!

Now I just need sixty two more to get the t shirt!

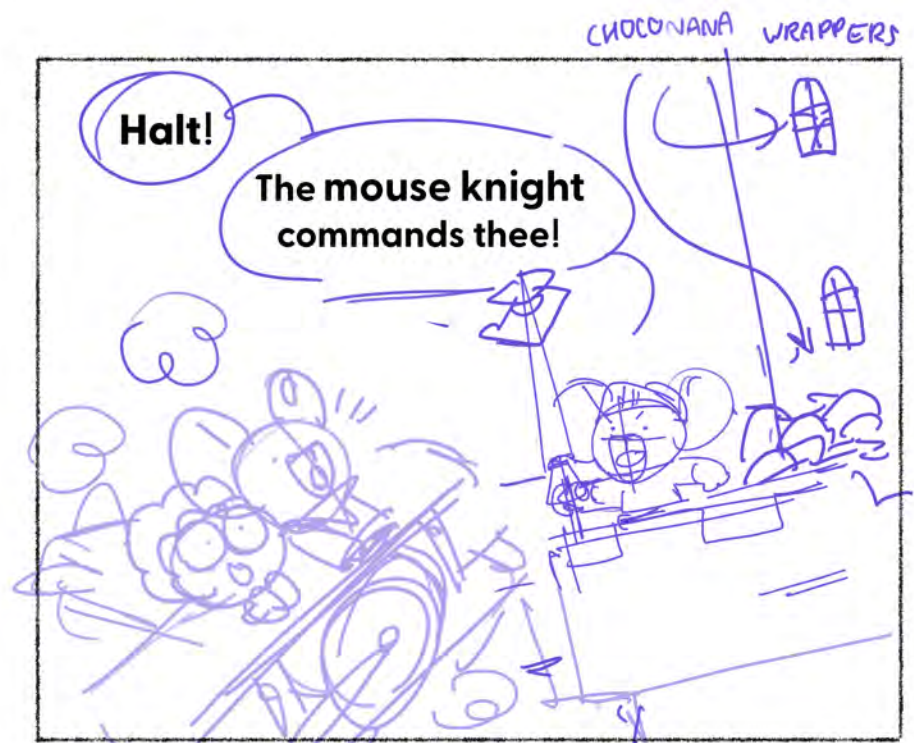

Focus, Webster!

Aha!
What's this?

SQUEEZE

WRAPPERS

The footprints are heading to Medieval Marvels!

PLANE

That wasn't us!
We've just come from the cafe!

Amelia!
Thank goodness you're here!

Enough prattling!

It's Jousting time!

Our castle is besieged with litter!

Don't worry,

Webster and I are on the case.

Peace, sir!

Let's sneak off while he's busy and look for clues.

Chapter 3

All I could see were chocolate wrappers!

Choco-nanas
to be exact!

Look at this mess!
What is happening!

I don't know,

But I'm going to find out

Do you really need all of those wrappers, Webster?

only Fifty seven more to go

Or my name's not Amelia Cheeseheart

The bravest

And cleverest mouse
in the museum!

Come on,
Webster!

I've got a feeling there's a real litterbug behind this

Chapter 2

Amelia and Webster tracked the footprints through the museum

Along the corridor

And up a staircase,

Until

Strange

The footsteps run straight into this wall

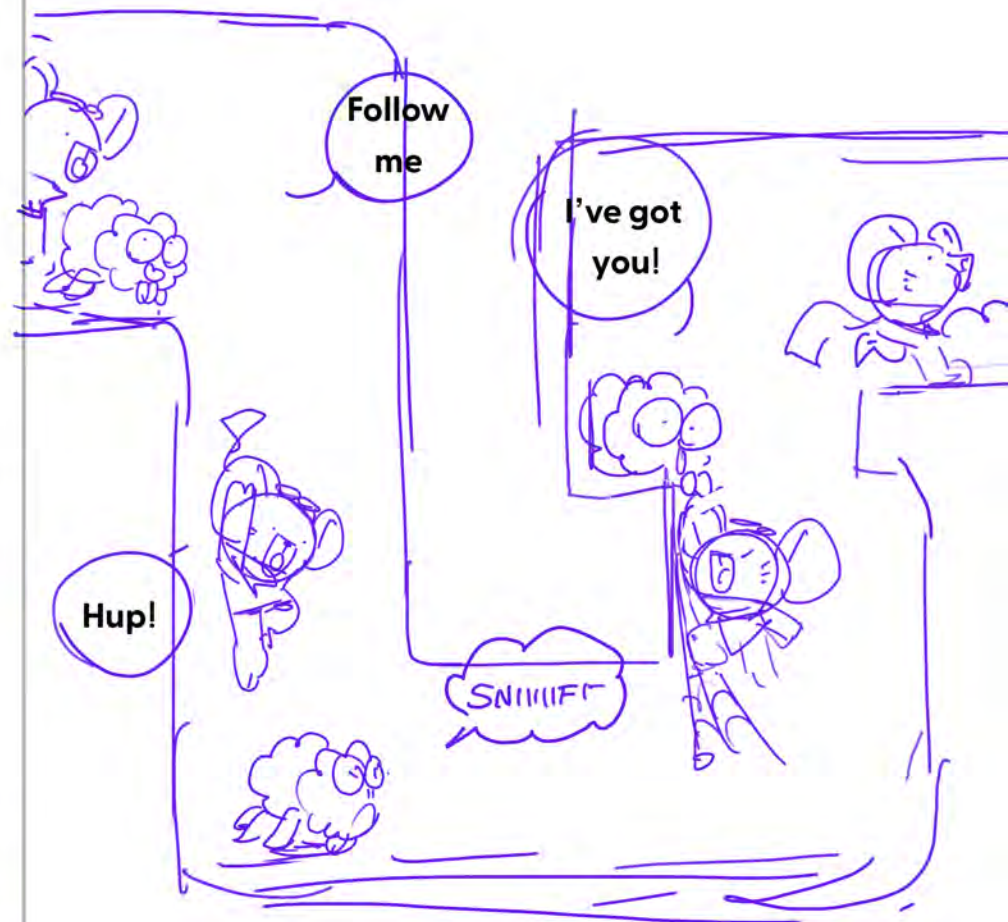

I'm sure
I can smell
Choco-nanas

The smell is coming from that Air vent!

Chapter 5

Carefully, Amelia and Webster sneak into the Aztec exhibit

CHOCOLATE

I think I need an eye test

For a moment I thought his feathers looked like choconana wrappers!

I think you've got choconanas on the brains, Webster

Chapter 6

I have come to see my statue

Hmmm.. it's good..

But it needs more Chocolate!

B-b-but we used all the chocolate in the museum!

WRAPPERS

Angry!?

Do you want me to get

No!

(OPTIONAL)

Button

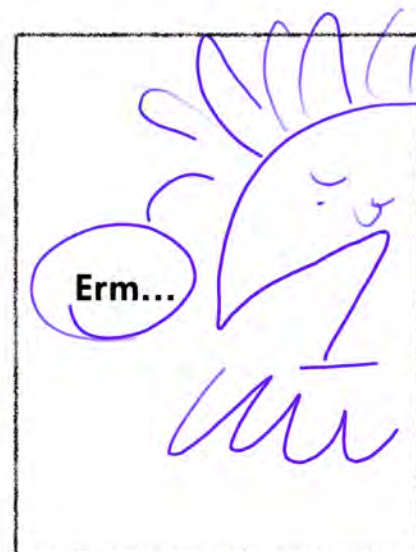

Chapter 7

What are you gonna do to her, big Z?

Erm...

Listen to me

Big Z has been lying to you

He's not an Aztec god!

He's

GASP!

A... cockroach ?

In a costume made of choconanas

Tuco

Do you think they'll let me have the choconanas?

I don't think now is the time to ask, Webster

Hup!

I'm turning it all the way up!

This isn't working!

I know!

Let's melt it!

Soon the statue will be gone!

Gone!

Gone!

Chapter 8

Phew, It's getting hot already

The statue has started to melt!

At least the mystery is solved

We found out who stole the chocolate

And I don't think they'll be taking any more

Drip

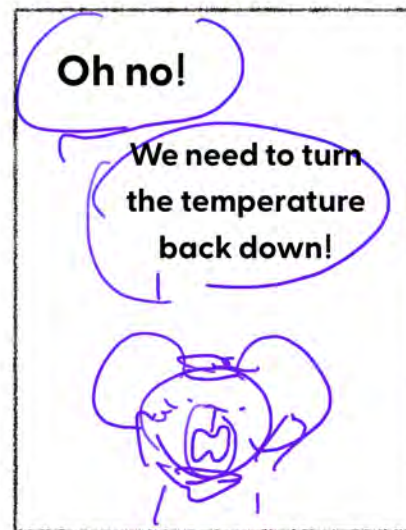

Drip

Splat!

Yuck!

But what about the litter?

We'll have to ask the Aztecs to pick up the wrappers

Chapter 9

Webster, are you still trying to collect enough wrappers for the T shirt?

Maybe

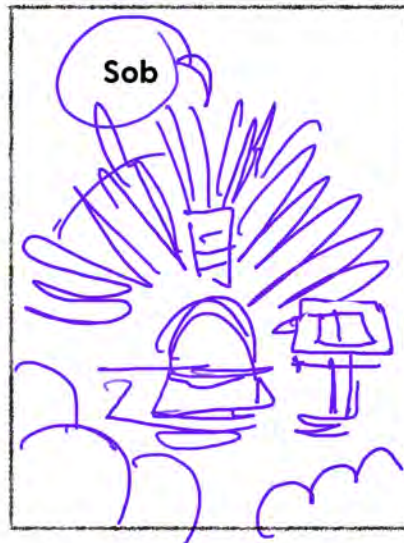

Big Z!
We need your help

No one needs me

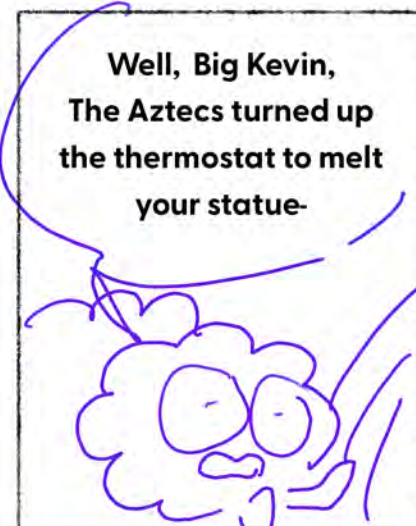

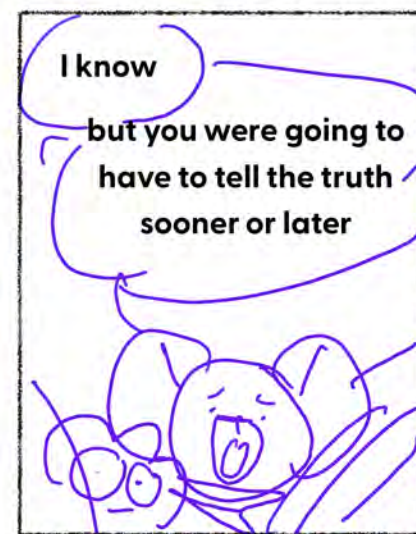

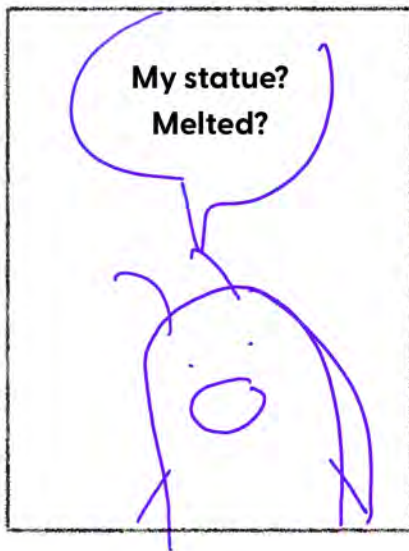

Sob

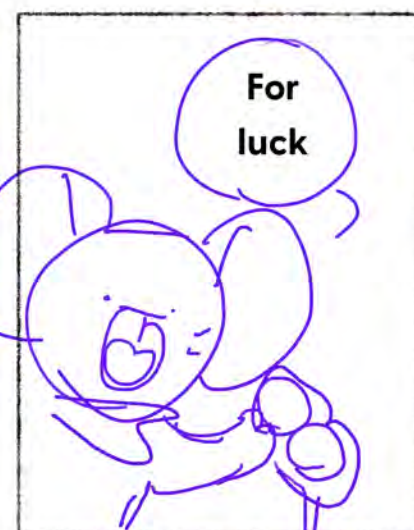

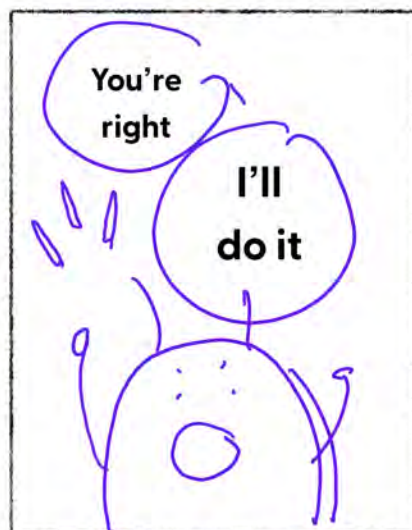

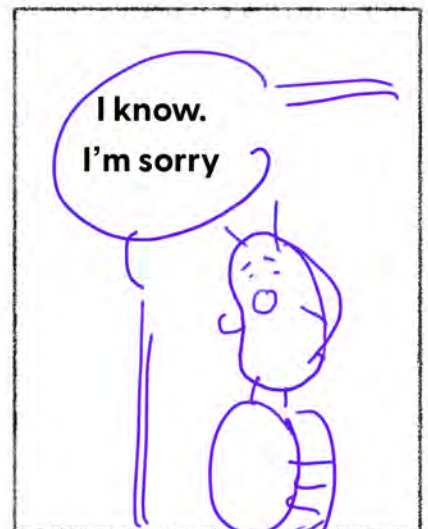

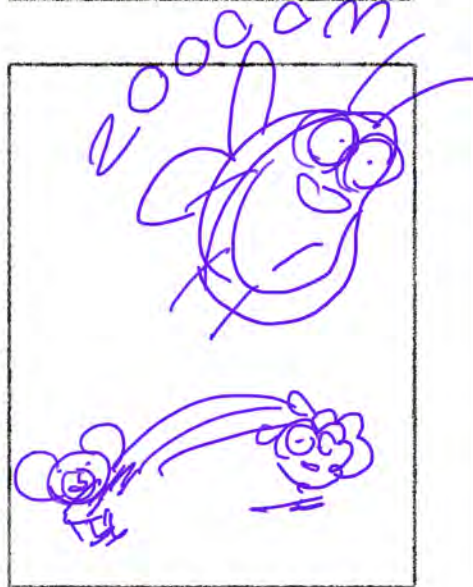

Big Z?

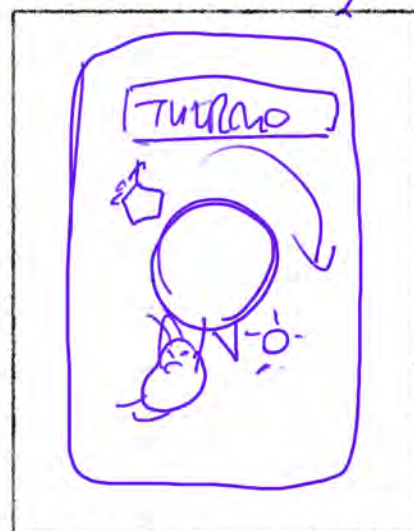

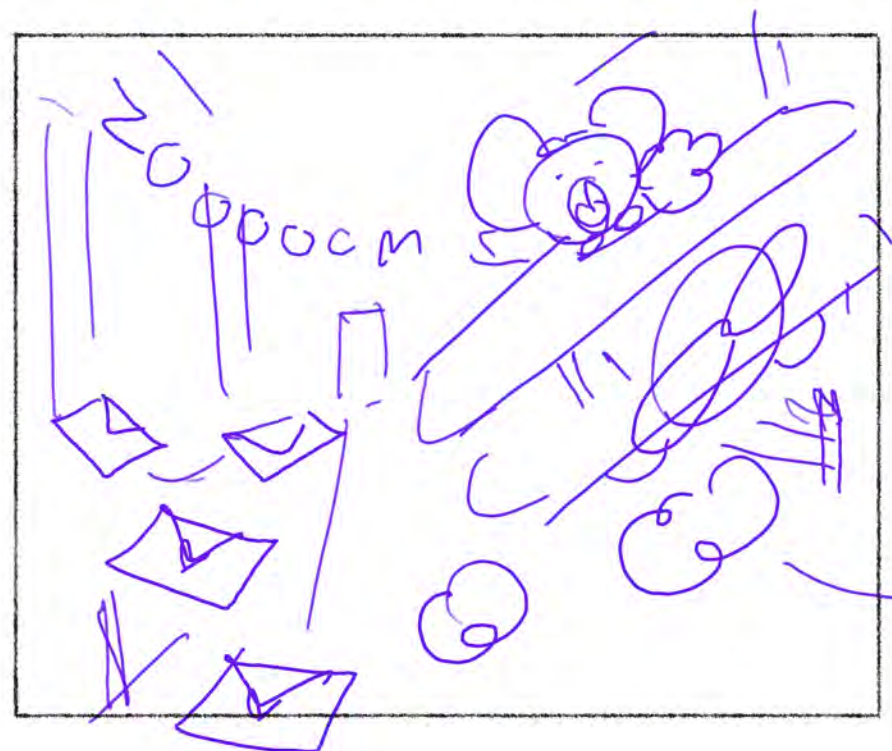

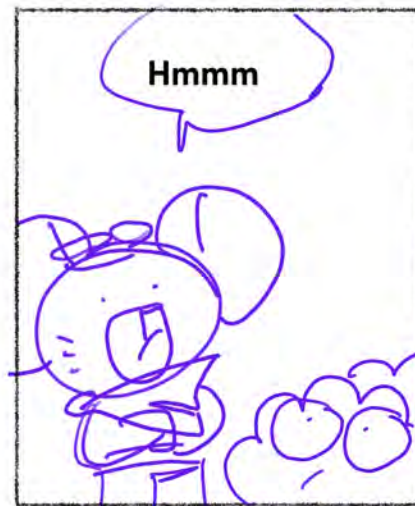

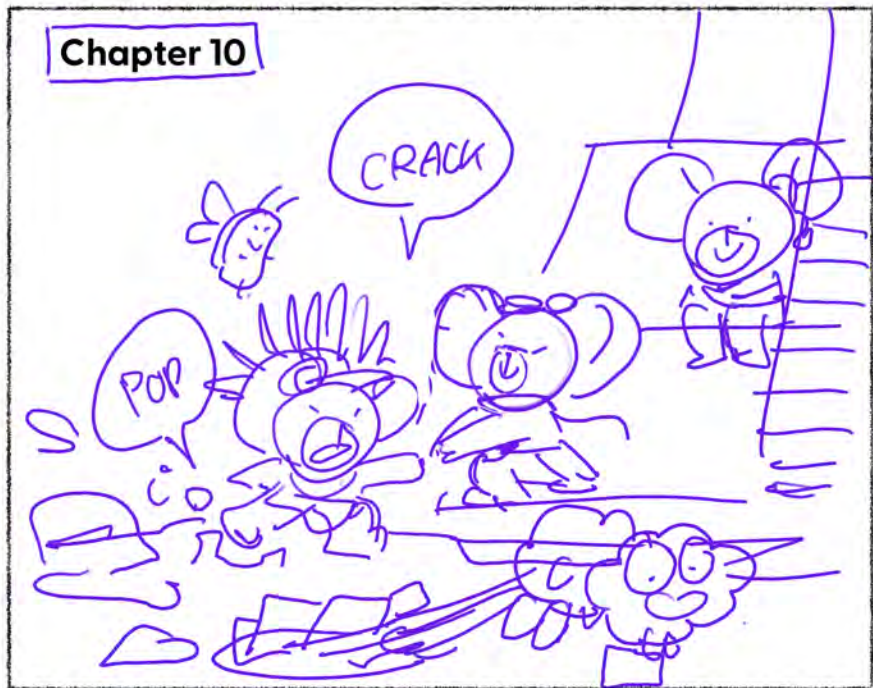

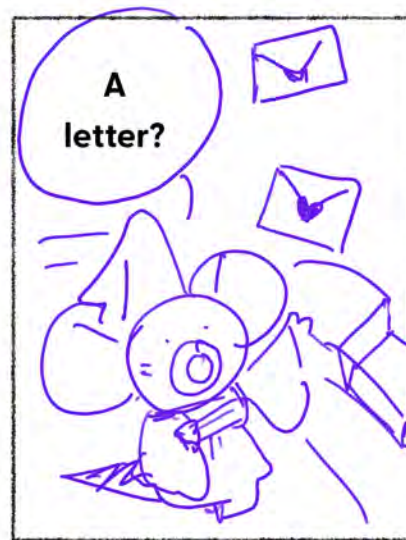

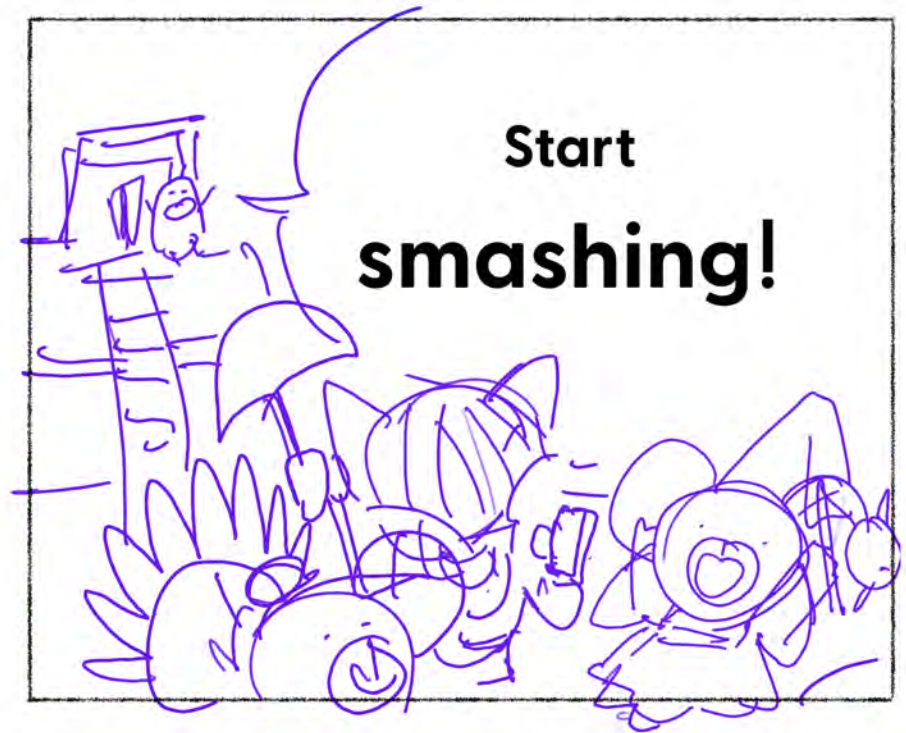

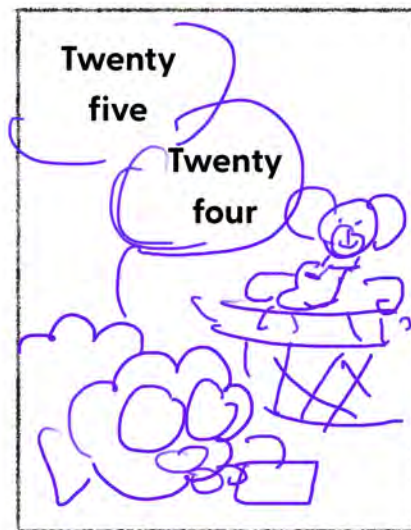

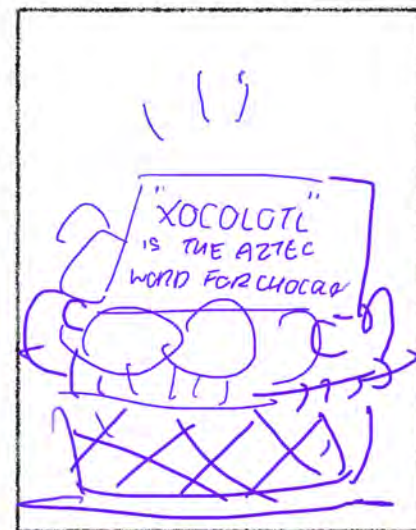

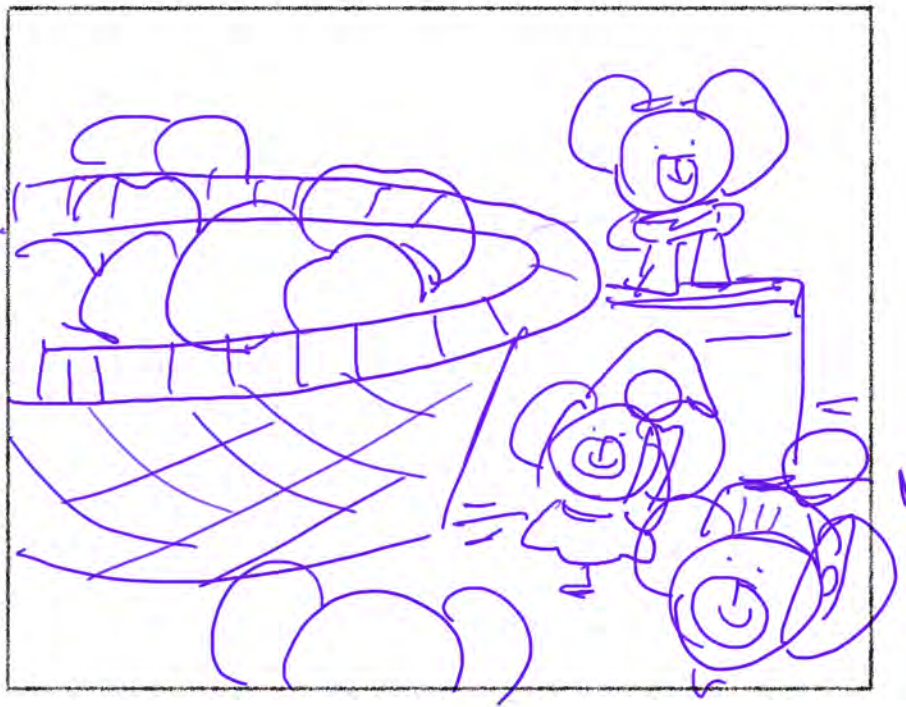

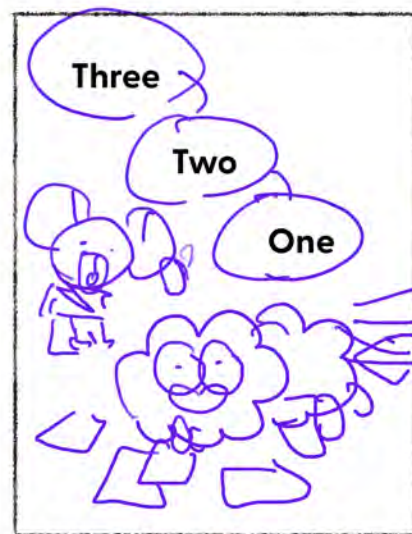

Chapter 10

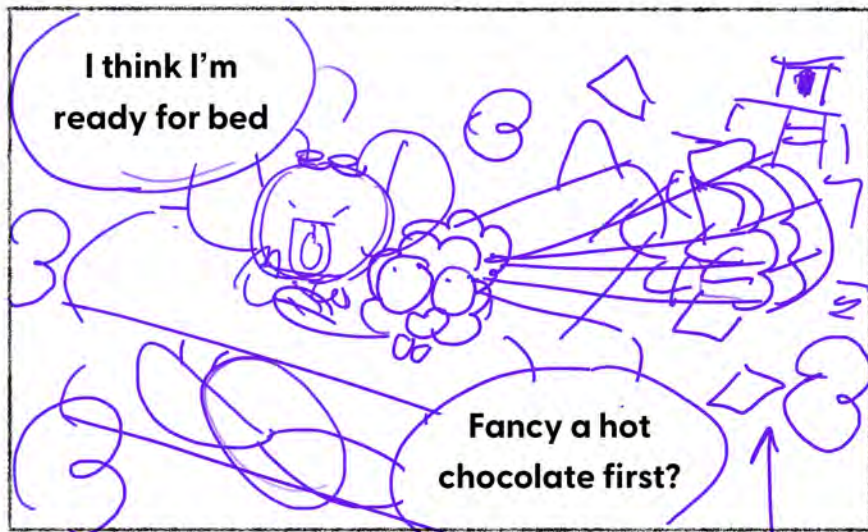

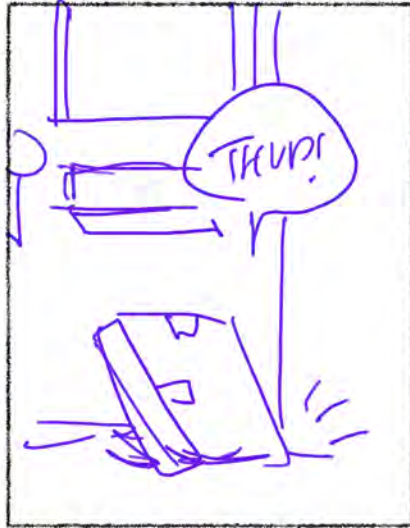

WRAPPERS

Chapter 11

A few days later

That night

Webster,
you look...

Hmm... Mr. W. Ebster?
He must be new. I'll leave this in the gift shop for him.

Choctastic!

Did you know!

Chocolate comes from cacao beans and was first developed hundreds of years ago in Central America

Cacao beans do not look very tasty. They grow on trees inside large, wrinkly, yellow pods

The Aztecs ground up cacao beans and mixed them up with water to make a drink. This drink was bitter and frothy and flavoured with chili to make it spicy!

Drinking chocolate was brought to Europe by Spanish explorers in the 1600's. It became very popular!

Did you know

The Aztecs come from Central America. The ruins of their capital is under Mexico City Moctezuma was the last king of the Aztecs. He reigned between 1502-1520. No one was allowed to turn their back on him so visitors would have to walk backwards while saying goodbye.

Big Z may have borrowed a shortened version of his name: Zuma

The Aztec language is called Nahuatl and is still spoken in parts of Central America. The words chocolate, tomato, avocado and chili, all come from Nahuatl words

Many of the foods we eat today like corn tortillas, hot chocolate, and popcorn were also eaten by the Aztecs!
